LECTORI.

PLUKENETII probatiſſimæ illæ tabulæ dudum in bibliopoliis deſiderantur; nec tamen eo minor earum perpetuus eſt uſus in quærendis auctorum ſynonymis; repetitionem ergo utiliſſimi libri inſtituimus, eoque ſtudiis veſtris officium præſtituros eſſe nobis blandimur.

Primum quod cavere voluimus hoc fuit, ne mutatis paginarum dimenſione & numeris omnes in libris botaniſtarum ad primam editionem factæ citationes lectoribus imponerent: ſed ulterius animadvertimus, quod ipſi vos noſtis, in poſtrema parte, quæ Almageſtum inſcribitur, quam obſcuræ ſint revocationes a tabula ad deſcriptionem, quin figuram plantæ deſcriptæ reperire vix poſſibile, cum nullæ adſint citationes. Inſuper conſultum duximus plantas in prima editione omiſſas loco proprio interpolare, quas quas tamen confuſionis vitandæ cauſa aſteriſco notabimus. Meminiſſe hujus ſigni oportet ubi plantam in tabulis evolvere velitis; tum enim numerus poſticus reſpondet numero plantæ in qua libet tabula, ſuperne numerando. Hanc præter nulla omnino facta eſt mutatio impreſſionis, nam in utraque editione pagina paginæ, & linea lineæ reſpondent; tabulæ etiam omnes eadem.

LECTORI BENEVOLO.

Natura parens sui studiosa, conservatrix, artis & philchritudinis suæ, sibi conscia perditura fructum sui, si amplum hunc terrarum Orbem solitudini ostenderet, ut desiderium contemplandi fertilissimum stirpium apparatum, quem in ipsâ superficie subministrat nobilissima hæc quam pedibus calcamus Terra; in nobis excitaret, & conservaret, Novitate animos nostros ad se allicit, dum indies e varijs Asiæ Provincijs, & à Primoribus prorsùs incognitas in apricum producit plantas: Quamplurimi etiàm Europæ loci à Majoribus nostris non ritè examinati, Novas formas, Novas species, quotidie nobis suppeditant. Africa quoq; his nostris temporibus, monstra sua gignere non desijt: sed Novi aliquid ex Plantarum genere, semper ab extremis parturientis Africæ oris, ad nos adportatur. Nec hìc Natura subsistit, sed continuè Novas ex alieno Orbe, in lucem profert plantas. Novæq; virtutes à filijs Artis, in salutem humani generis inveniuntur: Vigilant enim Sæculi nostri Botanici, qui (ut Cl. Raij verbis utar) nec Majorum inventis contenti, ad ulteriora tendunt, nec alios sibi inquisitionum terminos, & columnas figunt, quam quas Natura terris fixit, Universum Orbem curis suis complexi. Illi scilicet stimulo mihi fuere, ut nulli sudori, operæ, ac sumptui parcerem, quin tam indigenas, quam exoticas stirpes inquirerem, atq; colligerem, quarum investigatio ab ipsâ Adolescentiâ, nobis amœnissimâ varietate se commendarit; fateor equidèm Botanica in omni ævo, melioris luti Quamplurimis excoli; et in Arte medendi vèl antiquissima est ratio, per simplices Herbas, morbos abigendi; Hujus enim Cognitionem ad Principes, etiàm & Magnates, pertinere, Salomonis (regum omnium quos Sol unquàm aspexit Sapientissimi) Alexandri magni, Mithridatis, Diocletiani, & aliorum docuêre exempla; Imperatores & Reges non pauci Heroesq; Inclyti, Indagationem & peritiam hujus Naturalis Philosophiæ partis se dignissimam judicarunt, rati se Herbariæ rei colendo studium, optimè de humano genere mereri, nec minùs solidam, veramq; laudem indè, quàm ex Triumphis, ad omnem Posteritatem, nomini suo libare posse; Hanc tanti fecerunt Ethnici, ut ejus Inventionem, Dijs dignam æstimarint, & licèt dubitare videantur, de primo eorum Inventore, consentiunt, tamèn tandèm, Apollinem illâ prærogativâ maximè præeminere, his Poetæ verbis.

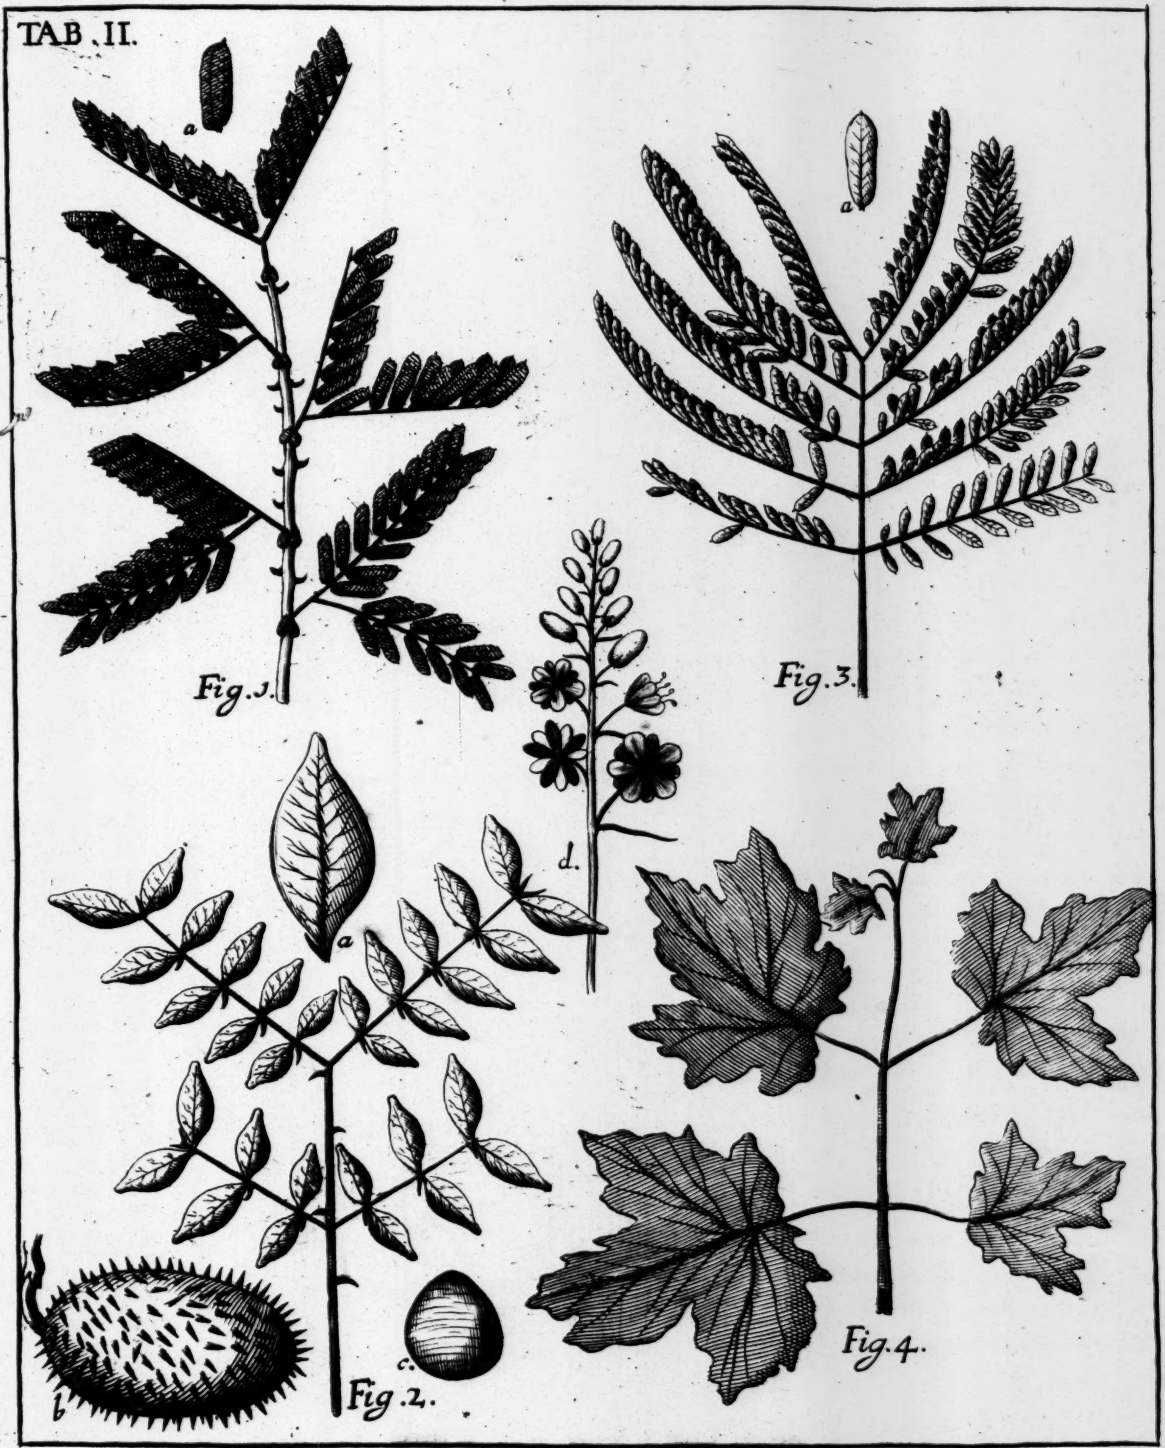

Inventum Medicina meum est, Opiferq; per Orbem Dicor, et Herbarum subjecta potentia Nobis.

et semper fuit adeò incredibilis apud Antiquos ecistimationis Herbarum Scientia, ut æqualis censebatur gloria, Herbam invenisse & Vitam juvasse. Quicquid enim hujus Sæculi sentiunt alij, nobis satis persuasum, Studium hoc Botanicum necessariam esse Physicæ & Medicinæ partem, multis jucunditatis, & Delectationum condimentis gratiosam, & toti generi humano, utilitate quam maximè commendabilem: Visum igitur fuit, ut Nobilissimæ Botanices Scientiæ, ulterius inserviam, Plantarum aliquot Icones non alibi expressæ per ièrgâ manu, et emodulatâ ad Plantarum ipsarum dimensiones naturales, proportione: quadam, effigiare, & adumbrare. et earum plures, compendij gratiâ, in unam Tabellam conjeci; Opus non minùs varium, quàm ipsa est Natura, ubi Orientis & Occidentis Indiæ Montium, Sylvarum, Vallium, litorum & camporũ, Stirpes nativæ, & alumnæ à nullo Classico Autore antèa celebratæ, sed prorsùs Novæ & hactenùs inauditæ, oculis vestris obversantur; singulis etiàm hujusmodi Novis plantis, nomenclaturam, propriis & genuinis Symbolis insignitam accommodavimus. ut quæ rem ipsam aptissimè notat, & clarior foret omnis earum Cognitio simul & Cognatio, quam insuper dissimilitudinis collationis & similitudinis ope, inter Congeneres, & similimas, ideratæ inspectioni, & ex Plantis ipsis expansioni, adaptavimus. Nam hæc omnia ex αὐτοψία didicerimus, non ut Nicander Colophonius, qui ab agro remotissimus, rustica aggredi, non veritus: neq; ut Pamphilus, quem Galenus reprehendit, quòd cum non conspexerit; nè dùm per Somnium viderit, de his tamèn scripserit: Has nobis vidisse contigit omnes, & etiamnùm præ manibus sunt, quas in Herbario nostro vivo, impræsentiarum conspicere licet, aliasq; permultas, & inditas habeo, quas tamèn in præsenti non exhibeo, quia Chartæ penuria, & typorum immodica deterrent impensa; neq; enim potest quis sullam certam cognitionem sibi arrogare Vegetabilium quæ nunquàm aspexit. Benevolus interim Lector has Tabulas Phytographicas, æquo suscipiet animo, donec Herbarij vivi Catalogus, Plantarum circiter Octo millium comprehendens consequatur, nec dubito quin candidi Rei Herbariæ cultores, non solùm admiraturi sint, sed grati recolent quòd tot incognitas. (octingenti ferè numerantur) in his Tabulis nostris duas in partes distributis, luci nunc damus, & si quid, vèl etiàm Viris eruditioribus, unquàm Novitate suâ, se commendarit; Tabulæ nostræ Phytographicæ, Novi Orbis, Novis (i e) novissimè detectis, & hucusq; inedilis stirpibus, sunt refertissimæ, quibus amplum Exscriptoribus campum damus, in quo plantas legere possunt, easq; generali Plantarum Indici, seu Pinaci inserè, quæ in nostro Orbe jamdudùm innaturerunt; ex quibus omnibus non desperarem, nos Botanophilis perplacuisse, & plurimas ab ijs gratias promeruisse, tùm ob ea, quæ jàm præstitimus in hoc opere nunc edito, tùm ob ea, quæ præstituri sumus in Catalogo nostro, brevi edendo, ut hac ratione, vobis meis amplissimè satisfactum iri arbitrarer. Utaris ergò Lector amice his nostris laboribus, quos tamèno huic operi impendimus, ac stirpes hasce peregrinas rarissimas, & hactenùs inauditas, quæ nunc exactis Imaginibus Orbi panduntur, adspicias & in omnibus in ex haustam Sapientiæ profunditatem, & Majestatem divinam in ipsis Condendis, comperies; His nobiscum ad Dei gloriam, tuamq; ac cæterorum utilitatem, & oblectamentum paratis, fruere pro otio, & incolumis age; Vale.
